DP-6 Records / DR114

Two albums In Bloom didn't manage to die down still, and Ev Darko already prepared for the listeners the next musical bomb - a spring, warm and bright album Our Nights.

In an album it is presented the 12th deep house compositions among which didn't manage and without pleasant surprises - Lena Grig who does not need to be represented once again pleased with her vocal in Lacarno track, Ann Browne from the UK participated in creation of In My Eyes track and the Audioflakes project successfully remixed the Starlight track.

But the main advantage of an album is faultless mood and atmosphere.

We are sure - Ev Darko achieved big successes in creation of intellectual and dancing tracks, he proved it by his the efficiency and quality more than once.

Enjoy!
