DP-6 Records presents debut release Agustindub: "Aku" from Uruguay.

Agustin Alegre aka Agustindub had an interest in music from an early age, being strongly influenced by his parents who contributed to what would be, later, his passion for electronic music. Different genres such as new Age, Funk, Jazz and Soul and artists like Jean-Michel Jarre, Mike Oldfield, Deep Forest, and Enigma, among others, were the ones that motivated and boosted him to choose his own style.

He started studying with DJ Koolt, renowned DJ concerning to Old School in Uruguay.

As time went by his interest in electronic music kept on growing, therefore, in 2010, he enrolled a course of Electronic Music Production given by Nicolás Silvano (aka Logitzik Sound) whose work is well-known in the country.

Since then, Agustin starts trying to develop his ideas in dance tracks, task that took him long hours of hard work.

After countless of failed attempts it that in 2013 he releases "Aku" under the label DP-6 Records.
Agustindub styles go from a warm line of deep house till a dark and hypnotic techno.
He is very good in terms of warm up and his groove is smooth and delicate.
He has taken part in many radio shows such as : big bang de Frisky radio, Bamboocha Radio and LigthWaveRadio and shared booth with 16 Bit Lolitas, Logiztik Sound, D-Nox.
